ESTABLISHED 1998

Mission Statement

The mission of the CCT is to provide a vehicle for the production and development of the performing arts in Colchester, Connecticut. This includes, but is not limited to, drama, musical productions and related cultural events. The CCT shall encourage community participation in all of its public activities and shall ensure that its ticket prices are as low as reasonably achievable, while still providing for high quality entertainment and investment in its future.

It all started when...

Several members of the original CCT Board of Directors had just completed a production of Jesus Christ in the Fall of 1998. After thoughtful consideration, they decided that it was finally time to expand the world of theater in Colchester to further benefit performers and theatergoers alike. The very first Directors elected to the CCT Board were Brian Birrell, Wallis Johnson, Barbara Gozzo, George VanDyne, George Tremblay, Richard Arsenault and Steve Howard. We have these individuals to thank for their vision to form a Community theatre group to perform musical and dramatic productions and for making CCT a reality.

Through their hard work, CCT was formed with the sponsorship of the Colchester Parks & Recreation, Adult Education, Youth Services, Senior Center and the Arts Commission. Today, CCT is sponsored only by Colchester Parks and Recreation. The first CCT production, Rodgers and Hammerstein's Carousel, in March of 1999, was an astounding success. And the rest, as they say, is history...
